

THE BOO DEVILS

· BUZZIN' BOP ·

(Letra y Música: J.M. Mora)

There's a red hot honeybee buzzin' over my head
There's a red hot honeybee buzzin' over my head
If I don't take care I think I'll give up in a mess

She comes to my loft hive wobbling her big honey jars
She comes to my loft hive wobbling her huge honey jars
I'm sure she'll try to feed me the whole weekend and so far

It's a sweet temptation to take a bath in her nectar pool
It's a sweet temptation to take a bath in her nectar pool
I'll have to give her all my pollen to feel her in a honeymoon

O mummy, mummy! You should take me back home
O queenie, queenie! You should take me back home
If you hadn't left me, I'd never try a new honeycomb

Well, but don't count on me on your honey-do list
Don't get tired buzzin' on me
I'm a honeydrinker, and there's a plenty of bees
Waiting for me to be honey pleased

Buzz, buzz... Buzzin' bop
Buzz, buzz... Buzzin' bop
Buzz, buzz, buzz... Buzzin' bop
Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz... Buzzin' bop
I'm the King bee, honeyed, I guess what are you looking for

Why don't you try my sting's honeydew before you become a wasp, honey sucker?
