

THE BOO DEVILS

· THE DEVIL BY MY SIDE ·

(Letra y Música: J.M. Mora)

If day becomes night
And I fall from grace
Won't matter what I've done

Light will be gone
Will be no trace
Of all the tears I've cried

Such a prime lie
Not being yourself
There's no sin to be banned

I'm deeply damned
Under an evil spell
The Devil's by my side

I, me, mine, my, ma, ma... How far is left behind?
I, me, mine, my, ma, ma... Is it worth being one of a kind?

Oh Lord! Have mercy...
Oh Lord! Have mercy...
For your holy name's sake!

The mirror is tempting...
The mirror is tempting...
If your soul is twice a fake

My horse sense is insane...
My horse sense is insane...
A ride on lust and pride

The Devil's by my...
The Devil's by my...
The Devil's by my side

I, me, mine, my, ma, ma... How far is left behind?
I, me, mine, my, ma, ma... Is it worth being one of a kind?

Faith hurts if you're in flames
'Cos the bait's too strong
It won't be long before shame and blame
Will be a blessing, not a curse
A broken verse down at the grave
Wait for sons of the same song

I, me, mine, my, ma, ma... I'm bound for love till dying
I, me, mine, my, ma, ma... The Devil's by my side

Faith hurts if you're in flames
'Cos the bait's too strong
It won't be long before shame and blame
Will be a blessing, not a curse
A broken verse down at the grave
Wait for sons of the same song

I'm sure to fall!

If day becomes night
And I fall from grace...

Oh God, bless my soul!

The Devil by my...
The Devil by my...
The Devil by my side

Oh Lord, bless my soul!
Mercy!
